LOCATION

Carrickfergus is a busy commuter town convenient to Belfast (11 miles), Whiteabbey (6 miles) and Larne (13 miles). The property comprises a new development fronting Governors Place in the town centre, occupying a prominent position on the A2. Approximately 250 public car parking spaces are available immediately opposite the properties. This is a busy location for people accessing the town centre, Carrickfergus Castle and the marina.

Well known occupiers in the vicinity include Sainsburys, Omniplex, Premier Inn, Spingsteens and Papa Browns.

DESCRIPTION

This new mixed use development with residential apartments on the upper floors and retail units at ground floor externally are finished in a painted render with attractive, partially glazed shopfronts in a traditional style in-keeping with the surrounding area. All services will be brought to connection points.

Internally, the unit has been completed to shell specification with a screed floor in the sales area and PVC flooring in the WC. Plumbing and electrical mains will be present in the unit.
