FEATURES

Potential residential development site (STPP)

Located approximately 6 miles from Belfast City Centre

Flat, rectangular site of c. 0.22 acres

Rare site to be available in this area

LOCATION

The subject property is located on Upper Dunmurry Lane in Dunmurry, approximately 5 miles from Belfast City Centre.

The area benefits from strong transport links, including regular bus services, Dunmurry railway station and direct access to the M1 motorway, providing convenient connectivity across Belfast and the wider region.

Dunmurry is a popular commuter town area with a range of local amenities including shops, cafés, schools, and commercial facilities.

The surrounding area is mainly residential, with some small local businesses and community uses nearby. There are several parks and green spaces in the area, including Lady Dixon Park and Colin Glen, which are easily accessible.

DESCRIPTION

The property at 19–21 Upper Dunmurry Lane, Belfast BT17 0AA comprises a detached former HSC clinic / library building arranged over two floors.

The property has been vacant for a prolonged period and is currently secured with boarded windows and doors.

The building is in a poor state of repair with significant internal deterioration evident, including water ingress and structural damage to internal finishes. As such, the property is likely to require substantial refurbishment or may be more suited to redevelopment of the site, subject to the necessary statutory consents.

ACCOMMODATION

From measurements taken on Spatial NI, we estimate that the approximate site area is c.0.22 acres.

From measurements taken on site, the approximate area of the dwelling is 3,240 sqft.
